12	Responsibility - The responsibility lies with the Indian Agent, if any damage or loss to the property of the Institute occurs while undertaking the contract.
13	Fall Clause - The prices in the order (Price as indicated in the order less discount plus taxes and duty if applicable) under the rate contract should in no event exceed the lowest price at which the RC holder sells the stores of identical description to any other organization during the currency of rate contract. If RC holder reduces its price or sells or even offers to sell the same item/s during the currency of the rate contract, price will be automatically reduced with effect from that date for all the subsequent supplies under the RC.
14	Liquidated Damages (LD) - Timely supply is the essence of our contract. Our requirements have got direct bearing with time targeted research work. By any measure, if there is any delay in delivery of the ordered material(s). A sum equivalent to 0.5% (Half) percent of contract value for each week of delay or part thereof until actual delivery will be deducted from the contract value as liquidated damages, subject to the maximum deduction of 10% (ten) percent. Lab/Instts. is at liberty to consider the termination of the contract subsequent to the attainment of maximum deduction.
15	Termination for Cause - The Purchase Order can be terminated without any notice in case the performance of the firms is found consistently unsatisfactory or due to the serious lapse on the part of the firm like very delayed supply, consistent lack of quality materials being supplied etc.
16	Force Majeure - a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Clauses relating to extension of time, penalty and Termination for Default the Supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure. For purposes of this Clause, "Force Majeure" means an event or situation beyond the control of the Supplier that is not foreseeable, is unavoidable, and its origin is not due to negligence or lack of care on the part of the Supplier. Such events may include, but not be limited to, acts of the Purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, and freight embargoes. b) If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof within 21 days of its occurrence. Unless otherwise directed by the Purchaser in writing, the Supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event. If the performance in whole or in part or any obligations under the contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of Force Majeure for a period exceeding 60 days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussions on either side.
17	Dispute & Applicable Law - This contract is subject to the Indian law and especially laws like Sale of Goods Act, Indian Contracts Act etc. as amended from time to time.
18	Arbitration clause - The Purchaser and the supplier shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the Contract. a) If, after thirty (30) days from the commencement of such informal negotiations, the Purchaser and the Supplier have been unable to resolve amicably a Contract dispute, either party may require that the dispute be referred for resolution to the formal mechanisms as specified below. These mechanisms may include, but are not limited to, conciliation mediated by a third party, adjudication in an agreed national and national arbitration. b) In case of Dispute or difference arising between the Purchaser and a supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with this agreement, such disputes or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The dispute shall be referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, Delhi high court premises, New Delhi and if they are unable or unwilling to act, to the sole arbitration of some other person appointed by them willing to act as arbitrator. The award of the arbitrator so appointed shall be final, conclusive and binding on all parties to this contract / subsequent orders based on contract. c) Venue of Arbitration shall be New Delhi only.

Your faithfully,

SO / SPO / COSP / Sr.COSP
